1. Worked example

When does Bus B arrive at the Hospital?

Step 1 · Find the Hospital row third row

Step 2 · Go across to the Bus B column
09:35

Answer: 09:35

Check: Row = stop, column = bus ✓

2. Now try one with the steps

How long does Bus B take from the Library to the Retail Park?

Step 1 · Read the two times

Step 2 · 09:23 → 10:00

Step 3 · 10:00 → 10:02

Answer:

3. Practice

Have a go at each one. There is space underneath to work it out.

1. When does Bus A arrive at the Library?

2. Using the same timetable: when does Bus C leave Market Square?

3. Which bus does not stop at the Hospital?

4. How long does Bus A take from the Hospital to the Railway Station?

5. How long does Bus B take from Market Square to the Hospital?

6. Which bus arrives at the Retail Park at 12:24?

7. How long does Bus C take for its whole journey, Market Square to Retail Park?

8. Sara must be at the Hospital by 09:00. Which bus should she catch?

9. How long is it between Bus A and Bus B leaving Market Square?

10. Tom gets to the Library at 09:30. How long does he wait for the next bus?

11. Which is faster from Market Square to the Railway Station: Bus A or Bus C? By how many minutes?

12. A table shows tickets sold: Monday 245, Tuesday 198, Wednesday 312, Thursday 276. On which day were most tickets sold, and how many more than on Tuesday?

13. Using the ticket table in question 12, how many tickets were sold altogether?

14. A swimming pool table shows: Lane swim 06:30–08:00, Lessons 08:00–12:30, Family swim 12:30–15:00. How long is family swim?

4. Before you hand it in Reading across the wrong row and giving a time for a different stop.

Put a finger (or a ruler) on the row and another on the column. The answer is where they meet.

Working out 09:23 to 10:02 as $10.02 - 9.23 = 79$ minutes.

Count on: 09:23 → 10:00 is 37 minutes, then 2 more = 39 minutes.

Thinking a dash (—) means the bus arrives at 0:00.

A dash in a timetable means the bus does not stop there.
